

A Level Religious Studies

Exam Board: AQA

Course Structure:

In Year 12 students study for an AS Level in Religious Studies. This involves the simultaneous study of two units, both of which are assessed through final examination. The two units of study are Islam: The Way of Submission and Religion and Ethics.

Both units are equally waited.

In Year 13 students study for an A Level in Religious Studies. This involves the study of two units, both of which are assessed through final examination. The two units of study are Philosophy of Religion and Religious Experience.

Both units are equally waited.

What will I study?

RSS01 AS Unit A Religion and Ethics 1 - Utilitarianism, Abortion & Euthanasia, Situation Ethics, Religious Teaching on the Nature and Value of Human Life

RSS10 AS Unit K World Religions: Islam 1 The Way of Submission - The Quran, The Five Pillars, Doctrine of God, Key Beliefs (Risalah and Akirah)

RST3B A2 Unit 3B Philosophy of Religion - The Problem of Evil, Ontological Argument and Religious Language.

RST4A Unit 4A Topic III Religious Experience - The experience of believers through visions, miracles and conversion experiences.

What can I do with A Level Religious Studies?

Teaching	Social Researcher	Civil Service/Politian
Advice Worker	Police Officer/CID Officer	Councillor
Charity Officer	Writer/Journalist	Human Resources Officer

Desired entry requirements:

GCSE grade C in English and Science.

Where can I find out more about studying Religious Studies at Broadway?

Ask Mrs Meredith, Mrs Khan or Mrs Godsil

Visit www.aqa.org.uk