Headteacher's 'Thought For The Week'

I was delighted, once again, to invite Broadway's most famous 'old boy' Benjamin Zephaniah into school to perform his poetry and inspire staff and students.

Benjamin presented the LAMDA certificates to 50 students who achieved a distinction; over 300 students took this prestigious exam.

I have been thinking of the words of David in the Psalms this week: "How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!" Psalm 133, verse 1.

Good ideas?

Do you or your parents/carers have a good idea how to make our school even better?

Broadway's Garden Harvest Time

After a very successful first year of the garden, the harvest has been plentiful with onions, tomatoes, cabbage, kale, runner beans, cucumber and much more. Peppers were gained from the greenhouse, the parsley herb has spread out and the fruit trees gained apples and pears. It was good for the students to see how the preparation in the ground for the planting actually delivered with good results from the vegetables grown.

A celebration of the garden is being filmed by Birmingham Services for Education as a learning resource and example to inspire and motivate other schools to take on the Environmental Healthy Eating growing activity to enable learners to understand how food is grown and sourced from the land.

With the harvest now taken to be used in Food Technology lessons, the garden is being prepared by students to enrich the soil and rest for the winter season, ready for the next spring planting. The last vegetable now is the Broadway pumpkin, small but ripening to a lovely orange shade ready for Halloween and then onto lovely sweet potato and pumpkin soup!

TYPES OF RESPONSIBILITY

This week we are exploring the many different kinds of responsibility that will lead to you being a person of good character and a good British citizen:

MORAL RESPONSIBILITY: to other people, animals and the Earth. This means caring, defending, helping, protecting, preserving and sustaining all life. You are accountable for treating other people justly and fairly, for honouring other living things and being environmentally aware.

LEGAL RESPONSIBILITY: to British laws and the rules of your community. If there is a law you believe is outdated, discriminatory, or unfair, you can work to change, improve or eliminate it. You cannot simply decide to disobey it.

FAMILY RESPONSIBILITY: means treating your parents, siblings, and other relatives with love and respect, following your parents' rules and doing chores and duties at home.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY: As part of the community, you're responsible for treating others as you want to be treated, for participating in community activities and decisions, and for being an active, contributing British citizen. Pick up rubbish to keep the community clean. Read local and community newspapers to stay informed. Vote in elections when you are old enough.

RESPONSIBILITY TO CUSTOMS, TRADITIONS, BELIEFS AND RULES: These might come from your family, your community, your heritage, the country you live in or your faith. Learn what they are and do your best to respect and follow them.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY: It's up to you to become a 'person of good character'. Your parents, teachers, religious leaders and other caring adults will guide you, but only you can determine the kind of person you are and ultimately become.

THIS WEEK'S GOLDEN WORDS

It is not only for what we do that we are held responsible, but also for what we do not do.

Year 7 football result

Broadway 9 - 5 Perry Beeches 2

Another impressive performance to maintain the unbeaten start to the season. 3 victories in their first 3 games have seen The Broadway yr7 team take a lead at the top of the league table. Well played to all those involved but a special mention for Salman H. who after 3 games has already scored 9 goals.....

School uniform

The Broadway Academy uniform shows that pupils are part of an organisation. Wearing it says "we're all in this together" and are part of Team Broadway. Also, if you wear your uniform with pride, it means you are half way there to being respectful; buying into what the organisation is all about. Uniforms also give students a sense of belonging and create an identity for the school in the community. On that note, please note that "Hooded Jumpers", Caps or Trainers are not part of the Broadway uniform policy.

Examples of Hooded Jumpers/Jackets NOT permitted:
